

San Antonio golf group looking to expand, add new members

The Iron Thong Golf Gang, located in San Antonio, started out as a friendly Saturday morning golf round. You see, we have nothing better to do on a Saturday morning. We go out and “share good space.” We have been golfing together on and off for about 6 years.

Life is full of fun but Saturday morning brings us the game we love, keeps us coming back for more, week after week, round after round, to play the game we will never master - GOLF!

Iron Thong? Why in the world would we call our group Iron Thong?

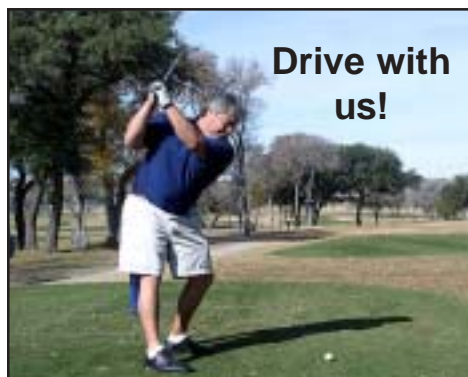

It all started on a nice summer Saturday morning when the testosterone kicked in during a friendly round. Sam was going head to head with Jeff and Sam said he was going to adjust Jeff’s thong. Jeff said, “Sam You can’t adjust my thong - I’m wearing an Iron Thong!”

That was when all the thong adjusting started and boy let me tell you, a whole lot of us have had our thong adjusted and sometimes it ain’t pretty.

Make no mistake! We play by the rules. All you bumpers, mulligan givers and takers and “good by me” on the greeners might as well stay home with mommy. This is full fledged golf, the type that makes you think and will cost you strokes during a round if you’re not careful.

This is our story, our Saturday morning saga of the personal battle of will, determination, control and the sheer agony of defeat! If you’re lucky enough and play to your handicap you can enjoy Victory and wear the Iron Thong!
